Bio Sketch

Fiona McAllan is a non-Indigenous researcher from Sydney. Her undergraduate research interrogates the contradictions in Native Title legislation in Australia, and her PhD thesis, entitled “Writing with” interrogates the suppression of Indigenous voice in ongoing colonial relations in Australia.

Area(s) of Expertise

Issues of Law and Sovereignty
Post-colonialism
Critical race and whiteness studies
Relational ontology

Current Research Activities

Fiona’s PhD research was undertaken as a thesis by publication and consists of series of articles from 2006 to 2009 and includes a 70 minute DVD prepared with Kulin Elders in Victoria, to be released as an educational resource through Ronin Films.

Two Key Publications
