Bio Sketch

Philip Morrissey is a Murri scholar and Academic Coordinator of the Faculty of Arts Australian Indigenous Studies program at the University of Melbourne. He lectures in Aboriginal cultural studies and Aboriginal writing. He has published on Aboriginal fine arts, film, literature, governance, sport and the public sphere. He graduated with a Bachelor of Arts from the University of Queensland and holds a Master of Arts from the University of Technology Sydney. Philip was awarded the Order of Australia medal in 1989 and publishes regularly in a range of journals including Artlink, Meanin, UTS Review and the Australian Book Review.

Area(s) of Expertise

- Aboriginal and Torres Strait cultural production
- Aboriginal writing
- Sport
- Nationalism and national identity

Current Research Activities

Philip’s principal research interest is Aboriginal urban culture. He recently completed a monograph on the Aboriginal boxer Dave Sands.

Two Key Publications
